Hello Brian:

I will be in North Carolina this Friday. Perhaps I can give a call and participate that way?

Kevin and I are sitting down with Scott of SMS next week Friday at 8:30AM for him to go over findings and estimates. He suggested that if you were available you might want to attend to get a feel for the magnitude and details that are being discussed with the project. I couldn't agree more and it would give you an opportunity to provide feedback on any grey areas that you see, as well as, the level of detail and take home message that Scott provides to the rest of the Commissioners when meeting time comes along.

Please let me know if you are available and interested in attending?
