

Brian Roebke photos

The Public Service Commission held a virtual hearing Feb. 20 regarding the city's differences with the Heart of the Valley Metro Sewerage District on the allocation of costs for the sewer interceptor project that's underway in the Fox River. Mayor Tony Penterman and City Engineer and Public Works Director John Neumeier and legal counsel represented the city (above) and Dave Casper and Brian Helminger (below) represented the utility district.

